

Mrs. HENRY E. ABBEY ALLEGES CRUELTY.

She Makes Startling Accusations in a Suit for Absolute Divorce.

Says Her Husband Once Threatened to Cut Her Throat with a Razor.

At Another Time She Declares He Beat Her About the Head and Blackened Her Eyes.

HE DENIES THIS AND WILL FIGHT.

Before Her Marriage She Was a Well-Known Leading Woman, and Intends Later to Return to the Stage.

Now that Henry E. Abbey, the well-known theatrical manager, has fully recovered from his serious illness, his wife, Florence Gerard Abbey, has, through her counsel, Charles W. Brooke, brought an action against him for absolute divorce. The separation of Mr. and Mrs. Abbey was exclusively announced in the Journal of May 13.

The suit was instituted in the Supreme Court, and in her bill of particulars Mrs. Abbey makes some startling allegations. She alleges that her husband deserted her April 23 last, and that since then he has failed to contribute one penny toward her support. She says she was married to Mr. Abbey at St. Paul's Church, Boston, Mass., in November, 1892, and that later during the same year, while at the Hotel Savoy, London, her husband, while intoxicated, beat her about the head and face and blackened both her eyes.

Threatened to Kill Her. On another occasion, she avers, her husband choked her, and, seizing a razor threatened to cut her throat.

Their final quarrel was in the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, about April 10 last. Mr. Abbey, his wife and daughter Kittie, were there, the former on business connected with the Lillian Russell Opera Company. On the day mentioned the guests on the same floor were surprised to hear the voices of the impetuous and his wife in tones of the greatest anger. A few minutes later Mr. Abbey left the room and the hotel.

On his return Mr. Abbey discovered that his wife and daughter had left for this city. Arriving here they took up their residence in the Grenada Apartment House, No. 150 West Fifty-ninth street. Mr. Abbey came soon after and went to the Gilsey House. It was then that rumors of a divorce were heard, but, as Mr. Abbey fell ill and his wife was in almost constant attendance upon him, the talk was soon discredited. It appears, however, that there was only one truth.

Mrs. Abbey says her husband is paid $10,000 a year to manage the affairs of the Metropolitan Opera House and the Tremont Theatre, Boston, and that he has received $400 a week for the last two weeks and will continue to receive this amount from now on. She asks for $300 alimony and $100 a week until the case is sent to trial. The motion on this will be argued next week.

She further says that on the day of their separation Mr. Abbey called and took his daughter for a trip to Long Beach, but that he never returned and really left her in destitute circumstances.

Will Go Back to the Stage. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Abbey was well known as an actress. Although born in Cambridge, Mass., she made her professional debut in London when quite young, securing great success in "The Love Chase," "She Stoops to Conquer" and "The Bunch-Back."

It was while she was the leading woman of the late Edwin Booth's company that Mr. Abbey, then Mr. Booth's manager, met and married her. She was a widow with two children, a boy, who has since died, and the girl, Kittie, now eight years of age. The little one has always been very fond of her stepmother and made every effort to effect a reconciliation, but to no purpose. It is Mrs. Abbey's intention to return to the stage.

Mr. Abbey was at Southampton, L. I., last night, whether he went recently to undergo a surgical operation. An intimate friend stated that he would probably not have fought the suit had it not been for the charges of cruelty, all of which he will deny absolutely.

Testimonial to Mayor Strong. A testimonial in a massive gilt frame was handed to Mayor Strong yesterday.

It was the results of the election of 1894, in illuminated scroll. The returns by Assembly district, giving the vote for Strong, Grant, Gilroy and Einstein, were elaborately tabulated. The outer border of the scroll was in red, white and blue, and on the top was the inscription, "In Memory of Anno 1894," which seemed to rest on the wings of two eagles. Beneath this is a ring of gold, broken in five places, each division being labelled respectively "Crocker, Drivver, Hill, Scanlan, Martin."

LOVERS' SPAT MADE UP.

Actress Grace Russell and Young Barrett Meet Again and Marry After Their Quarrel.

Grace Gorslyne, who, under the name of Grace Russell, recently appeared at several roof gardens in a sketch with Charles L. Fletcher, was married Tuesday night to Irwin T. Barrett, a wealthy young man of Louisville, Ky.

Miss Gorslyne was formerly a society girl in Washington, where she met Mr. Barrett nearly a year ago. They were engaged to be married, but parted after a lovers' quarrel. Miss Gorslyne came to this city in April and prepared herself for a stage career. Unlike many society girls who adopt the stage, she believed in beginning at the foot of the ladder. Mr. Fletcher had written a sketch burlesquing the Belasco method of training pupils for the stage. Miss Gorslyne appeared with him in it.

She had kept up a desultory correspondence with young Barrett. He came to this city a week ago, and Tuesday night met her at a party. There was a reconciliation and the couple were married. They were married at once. She agreed, and they went to the house of the Rev. Dr. Busse, No. 415 West Forty-third street, where the ceremony was performed, the cab driver acting as witness.

Young Barrett's father was for thirty-eight years president of the Bank of Louisville. He died eight weeks ago, leaving a large fortune to his five children. The young husband is twenty-three years old, was a student at Cornell. His bride is twenty years old, very pretty, and has a petite, plump figure. Mrs. Barrett wishes to keep on with her stage career, but the young husband is opposed to it.

EVIL RUMORS IMPUGN GLEASON'S GENEROSITY.

Whispered That He Did Not Pay for the School Children's Excursion;

That Long Island City Employees Were Assessed a Month's Pay for It;

And That the Residue Is To Be Used by the Mayor to Prove His Citizenship.

SO WIVES TOLD MRS. CONNORS.

Right Hand Man of the Fighting Executive Declares the Stories False and Says His Chief Paid all the Bills.

There is a decidedly unpleasant aftermath to the jolly outing which Mayor Patrick Jerome Gleason gave to the school children of Long Island City on Monday last. It takes the form of ugly rumors ac-check for the payment of the excursion. It has cost Mayor Gleason $30,000 to contend against complications. I say most emphatically that there has been no assessment of any kind to pay for Mayor Gleason's legal complications or for the outing to the school children.

DIVORCED IN OKLAHOMA.

That is the Defence Made by Dr. Edward M. Moffett to a Charge of Abandonment.

Dr. Edward M. Moffett, of No. 149 West Sixty-sixth street, appeared at Yorkville Court yesterday in answer to a charge of abandonment brought by Mrs. Margaret Moffett, of No. 450 West Fifty-seventh street. The couple were married twenty-four years ago and have four children. Dr. Moffett's defence was that he had secured an absolute divorce from his wife in Oklahoma last December, and he claimed that the fact that she acknowledged service of the papers in the divorce suit and appeared against him by attorney in the Oklahoma court, renders the divorce valid, although it would not have been so, according to New York law, had she not recognized the Oklahoma summons and trial.

Assistant Corporation Attorney McElrath appeared for Mrs. Moffett and claimed that the Western proceeding was entirely irregular and invalid. A further hearing of the case was postponed by Magistrate Knudtill until next Tuesday. The Oklahoma decree awarded the care of the two girls to Dr. Moffett and the two boys to the mother.

MASSACHUSETTS IS A DEBATEABLE GROUND.

Democrats May Carry the State if They Make a Strong Fight.

The Workingmen Continue to Flock to the Standard of Bryan and Sewall.

Gold Members of the Young Men's Club Do Underhanded Work Against Williams.

MAJORITY STAND BY THE SILVERITE.

A Fall Poll Shows a Result Directly Opposite That Which Had Been Anticipated. White Metal Cause Gaining Adherents.

Boston, Aug. 5.—Evidence accumulates to show that the fight for Bryan and Sewall, regarded as hopeless three weeks ago in Massachusetts, is likely to prove the sensational surprise of the campaign. With a careful cross-roads canvass, led by George Fred Williams, it is entirely possible to place this State in the Democratic column in November. The State press is for the gold standard, and the result is that only the defection of Democratic capitalists is exploited while the strong undercurrent for the Democratic ticket in Republican ranks is ignored.

The gold men are even accused of unfairness or worse in the conduct of their campaign. Several days ago an announcement was made that the Young Men's Democratic Club of this city had repudiated the action of George Fred Williams, its vice-president. The Executive Committee did repudiate Bryan and Sewall and the Chicago platform, and William T. Jenney, a gold enthusiast, took an alleged poll and announced that the Executive Committee's action was endorsed by 604 members of the club, only 85 opposing.

Opposes the Committee's Act. Ernest C. Marshall, a member, who doubted the accuracy of the poll, addressed a circular letter to every member of the club asking for an expression of opinion as to the Democratic nominees and their platform. He had received 670 replies up to this morning, with the surprising result that 242 expressed themselves as strongly disapproving of the committee's action in repudiating the Democratic ticket and platform. Those who approved numbered 134. Three replied that they had not fully determined.

Frank K. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor several years ago, and the editor of the Labor Leader, also out for the ticket and feels hopeful. Mr. Foster is stumping the State for Bryan, Sewall and Williams, and is conducting a vigorous campaign in his weekly. "There is no question that the result of the election in Massachusetts depends largely upon the action of the workingmen in the towns outside of Boston," said Mr. Foster to-day. "I am convinced that if a thorough canvass of the State Democrats by the Democrats, Massachusetts would be a debateable ground. The undercurrent for Bryan and Sewall is very strong and may reach surprising strength before election day. In Massachusetts there are approximately 125,000 workingmen voters. Probably sixty or seventy per cent are Democrats. The question is, what proportion of the Republican voters will, in this election, join their Democratic friends? As the issue is clearly defined, and the battle is between money and men, I hope for a wholesale conversion. The Democratic defection will be slight and will be offset by gains from the other side."

The Bryan and Sewall headquarters in Tremont street was a busy spot to-day. Hundreds of requests for literature were received and many demands for speakers to explain the Democratic side were made by letter from the towns of Lowell, Worcester, Fall River, Springfield, Brockton, Pittsfield, Salem and Lawrence. The State Convention, it is now quite clear, will be for Bryan and Sewall, Williams and free silver. It is also safe to say that at least ten of the twelve Democratic Congressional nominees will run on a free silver platform.

Boys Cause a Big Strike. Chicago, Aug. 5.—As the result of a cut of 25 cents in the wages of 450 boys, the Chicago Shipbuilding Company, employing 2,500 persons, finds its works tied up. One thousand riveters went out in sympathy with the boys, and the remaining 1,500 are unable to work without the co-operation of the others, even if they so desired. This afternoon work at the big concern was entirely suspended.
